

PASSION PROJECT IDEAS

There are infinite possibilities! They all depend on things you're interested in, but in case you are stuck, look below to spark an idea. After all, these are just passion project ideas to jump off from, and your passion project is yours, so do whatever you like.

LIFESTYLE

FOOD

Restaurant reviews, recipes, or just plain pictures of good food. Food for people, for dogs, for cats – go wild.

TRAVEL

Places to go, sights to see... Where to stay, what to look for... Any secret hacks for travelers?

HEALTH AND FITNESS

Workouts, meal plans, sports... If this is your thing, there's a whole bunch of people who'd love to hear what you have to say.

BEAUTY AND MAKEUP

Beauty junkies, it's your time to shine. Do you have holy grail product reviews for fellow beauty fans? Love talking about more wallet-friendly products? Or maybe you're more into organic or natural alternatives?

FASHION AND HAIR

Your thing might be all your different OOTDs (Outfits of the Day). Or you could be more of the guilt-free fashionista that has a message about sustainable fashion. You could be super good at doing different hairstyles and want to share how-to's for the perpetually lost (like many of us!).

ROOM/HOME IMPROVEMENTS

You might have ideas on how to make a room super pretty, or super minimalist, or even just super different and personal.

DO-IT-YOURSELF (DIY)

Lots of people will look for DIY alternatives to most everyday stuff because they're either more affordable than buying from a store or because they're into doing things with their hands. Maybe you know DIY tips and tricks for clothes, accessories, or room décor? There is no shortage for the kind of do-it-yourself tutorials you can share.

TECH

From products to reviews to how-to's – even to answering all these different tech-related questions – there's a whole bunch of things you can dive right into. I mean, there are thousands of gadgets and gizmos all over the planet, and thousands more ways to do a tech-related passion project.

GAMING

I don't see why you can't have a passion project related to gaming. Perhaps create a YouTube channel with walkthroughs on some popular video games?

ART

For most people, a creative passion project might automatically mean art-related projects. And because most of these things are pretty straightforward, I'll be jotting down a quick list of different mediums just for your inspiration.

1. Illustrations
2. Paintings
3. Lettering and Calligraphy
4. Photography
5. Videography
6. Creative Writing

PERFORMING ARTS

1. Dance
2. Theater
3. Music
4. Spoken Word Poetry

CRAFTS

TEXTILE

You might have a knack or interest in crochet, knitting, or quilting. And those would make awesome (and pretty!) passion projects in themselves.

PAPERCRAFT

Think origami or paper mâché!

DIY

As someone who loves DIY, I can tell you there's no shortage here. There are DIY bags, plushies, leather goods, soap, candles – too, too many to name!

SCRAPBOOKING

Start recording your travels or family life or even lookbooks!

CREATIVE JOURNALING

Some people would refer to it as bullet journaling, but I find that creative journaling is a more appropriate term for having those gorgeous hand-drawn layouts and lists inspired by the original bullet journal.

JEWELRY-MAKING

Get creative with materials!

POTTERY

Perfect for anyone who's not afraid of getting their hands a little dirty.

Handmade pottery is also super pretty to have in your home!

MODEL BUILDING

There are model kits for ships, buildings, and lots more.

MISCELLANEOUS

SOCIAL GOOD/ADVOCACY

You might stand for something real important to you, like living like a minimalist or being kind to the environment. If so, there's all the more reason to have a passion project around it – so you can share in the advocacy.
